Your friend Mike is excellent at creating short form content for social media. It is his passion. He is creative with his video making and has grown his school's social media following extensively. However, Mike needs to work on his writing skills and he has asked you to edit his cover letter.

Your mission is to help your friend Mike by editing his cover letter. Clean up his mistakes and make his writing shine.

Dear Ms. Gonzalez,

My name is Mike Torres a senior at valley Oaks academy intrested in the social media manager position for the los angeles Dodgers and I was thrilled to come across an opening for this position on the Dodgers website as I am too social media manager for my school.

My speciality when it come to social media is video I am great video creator and creative. On tiktok I have grown my school's follwong from none to 55,000 followers. On instagram now my school has 87,000 followers. School's youtube now has 38,000 subscribers and over 3 million views. I've done this creating innovative short form content.

I am applying for this pocition because i believe I can elevate the online content for the Los angeles dodgers since short form content is booming and this is my specialty I know my ideas and creativity will help dodgers popularity with young people

Thanks for your time and i hope to discuss more of my ideas further with you.

Sincerely,

Mike Torres
