Name: Section:

Date:

Score:

Vocabulary Builder

Demonstrate your knowledge of SAT-level vocabulary by answering the following questions

Have you ever encountered erratic weather patterns in your region?
Define the word "erratic" in your own words and provide an example of an erratic behavior or pattern you've observed in daily life.

Have you ever encountered erratic weather patterns in your region?
Define the word "erratic" in your own words and provide an example of an erratic behavior or pattern you've observed in daily life.
Choose one of the following two questions to respond to:
Describe a personal experience where your persistence paid off. How did your determination and perseverance lead to a positive outcome?
Consider a historical figure known for their persistence in achieving a significant goal. Who is this person, and what obstacles did they overcome through their persistence?

Define the word "enigma" in your own words. Can you think of a situation or mystery that you would describe as an enigma? Pick one historical enigma, such as the disappearance of a famous person or a mysterious event, and discuss the various theories or explanations that have been proposed to solve it. Choose one of the following two questions to respond to: Reflect on your own writing habits. Do you tend to be overly verbose or succinct in your writing? How can you strike a balance between providing enough information and being concise? Why is it important to be able to communicate succinctly in both spoken and written forms?

can individuals and communities take to prepare for and respond to such weather conditions?
Reflect on a personal experience or news story involving torrential rain. How did the torrential rain affect your daily life or the lives of those involved, and what lessons can be learned from such experiences?
Choose one of the following two questions to respond to:
Think about the concept of the "American Dream." How might someone describe the epitome of success in achieving the American Dream, and how does it differ among individuals?
Reflect on the epitome of a healthy lifestyle. How do factors like diet, exercise, and mental well-being contribute to the epitome of a healthy life, and how can individuals strive to achieve it?

In a debate, what strategies can one use to effectively refute an opponent's argument? Reflect on a personal experience where you had to refute a misconception or incorrect information. How did you approach the situation, and what evidence or arguments did you use to refute it?