What Kind of Writer Are You? (Build Your Writing Identity)

We are all writers.

We all have ideas that need to be developed and pursued.

You need to contemplate your interests, talents, and dreams - and answer the following question:

What kind of writer am I?

And if you don't see yourself as a writer yet, think: what kind of writer do I want to become?
Watch the video for ideas. And be sure you write 150 words or more.
