Golden Idea

When you read your classmate's writing, you will search for ideas that you deem to be golden.

These are ideas that you find intriguing, interesting, or insightful.

Remember - a good idea is not alway something you agree with.

In fact, A good or golden idea can be something that you disagree with, but it makes you think.

Once you have pinpointed a golden idea from your classmate's writing, you will write a 150word or more response on why you found that idea to be intriguing, interesting, or insightful.

Write your classmate's golden idea/line below:

Explain why you found this idea to be intriguing, interesting, or insightful. Write 150 words or more.
