What Inspires You?

Inspiration comes to us all in different forms. We are unique individuals, each energized by different sources.

Perhaps you're inspired by athletes who overcome adversity, which fuels your love for watching sports.

Or maybe it's brilliant musicians who move you, making you want to listen to music endlessly or even learn to play the piano.

It could be that great writers spark your creativity, leading you to love reading and exploring new ideas.

Understanding who or what inspires you gives insight into the person you aspire to be.

That's why it's so important to recognize your sources of inspiration.

So, once again, take a moment to reflect on someone or something that truly inspires you. Write 150 words or more explaining why.
