Write a Story About a Chase

You need to write a story about a chase.

That's right—a chase.

Maybe on your way to work, you saw a monster, and suddenly, the chase was on. Perhaps the U.S. Air Force scrambled jets to pursue a UFO over Alaskan airspace. Or maybe you and a friend were chased by a dog.

The choice is yours. Your story just needs to be creative, well-written, and centered around a chase.

What happens is up to you, but make sure your story is thrilling and all about a chase.

You could write about:

- A girl being pursued by a ghost.
- A cat in hot pursuit of a rat.
- Or even a cheetah chasing you through the wild.
