Name: Section:

Date:

Score:

Monologue

Write a monologue for a character who is at a crucial turning point in their life. This could be a moment of self-discovery, a decision that will alter their future, or a realization that changes their perspective on something significant.