Name: Section:

Name of Person:

Date:

Score:

What Does Success Mean to Me?

Analyze a Person That You Find to be Successful

Step 1: Who lives a life that I would like to have? Who represents something that I value? Who is impacting the world in a way that I admire?

Step 2: Analyze (or break down) your chosen person's journey to success. Consider the follo points in your analysis.	wing
 Background: Provide background information about the person, including their upbring education, and early experiences. 	ging,
Career and Achievements: Discuss the major milestones and achievements in the individual career or life. What were their notable accomplishments?	dual's

Challenges and Obstacles: Identify any challenges or obstacles the person encountered on their path to success. How did they overcome these challenges?
 Characteristics and Traits: Analyze the personal characteristics, traits, skills, and values that contributed to the individual's success. How did these attributes influence their achievements?

Step 3: Reflect on your learning by considering how your person's story has influenced your understanding of success and what lessons or insights you can apply to your own life and aspirations.
Write 150 words or more.

