What is a Fair Allowance For Someone Your Age?

Here's your question: What is a fair allowance for someone your age? Should it be $5 a week? $100 a month? Or maybe you believe kids your age shouldn't get an allowance at all. Perhaps you're too young or too old to receive money from your parents.

Your task is to logically explain why you think a person your age should receive a specific amount of money. For example, you might propose a system where kids are paid based on their age—$10 a week for a 10-year-old, or $16 a week for a 16-year-old. Or, you could argue that allowances should be tied to the number of chores completed: 5 chores equal this amount, 8 chores equal more.

Another option could be an annual allowance, which would teach kids how to budget over a longer period.

Be creative, but make sure your idea is fair and reasonable for someone your age.
