Write a Story That Takes Place in the Mountains

Your task: Write a story set in the mountains.

You might tell the tale of a lost hiker who refuses to give up. Or perhaps you'll write about how a small group of people in a castle defended themselves against an invading army. Maybe you'll describe a lynx encounter or a hunter who slowly realizes he's become the hunted.

You could explore the daring feats of the world's greatest daredevil, or capture the sights, sounds, and smells during a volcanic eruption.

The direction is yours to choose. Just make sure your story is creative and well-written.
