Write a Story That Takes Place in Ancient Rome

Your mission is to write a creative story set in Ancient Rome. Let your imagination take you back to a time of gladiators, chariot races, bustling marketplaces, and magnificent temples.

Think about who your main character is.

- Are they a brave gladiator, a clever merchant, a curious child, or maybe a Roman senator?
- Write down their name, age, and a few personality traits.

Decide where your story will take place.

- Is it in the Colosseum during a fierce battle, in a crowded marketplace full of spices and silk, or in a quiet Roman villa?
- Add details about the place:
- What do you see, smell, and hear?

Every good story has a problem or a quest.

• Does your character need to escape a danger, uncover a secret, or save someone?
