Write a Letter to the Next Year

Every year, people make New Year's resolutions—promises or goals for the year ahead. A new year often feels like a fresh start, offering a chance to try something new. That's why resolutions are so popular.

But this is English class, and we like to take things to the next level. Instead of just making a resolution, your mission is to write a letter to the upcoming year.

In your letter, share what you hope to accomplish in the next year. Imagine that the upcoming year is a person you're speaking to. Do you trust them? Are you excited to meet them? Maybe you're skeptical, thinking they'll throw you some curveballs. Or perhaps you're optimistic, ready to make the year your best friend.

Whatever your perspective, write in a conversational and creative tone. Use your letter to express your goals, hopes, and even concerns about the future.

So, grab your pen (or keyboard), and get ready to write a thoughtful and imaginative letter to the next year. Make it personal, make it meaningful, and most importantly, make it you.
