

Name:

Date:

Section:

Score:

Writing Challenge: 10-Sentence Puzzle

Your mission is to craft a short story of exactly 10 sentences. Each sentence must follow a unique guideline, challenging your creativity and storytelling skills. Let your imagination run wild as you piece together this narrative puzzle!

Sentence Guidelines:

1. Write an opening sentence with exactly six words that sets the tone.
2. Use a sentence to express two conflicting emotions (e.g., hope and fear, joy and regret).
3. Incorporate ONE of these objects: Compass, Mirror, Key, Letter.
4. Write a sentence that contains a surprising action.
5. Begin with "At first, it seemed..."
6. Include alliteration (e.g., "The wind whispered through the willows.").
7. Use ONE of these verbs: Shatter, Unravel, Leap, Drift, Emerge.
8. Write a sentence with exactly seven words, ending with a question.
9. Introduce an unexpected twist or revelation.
10. End on a single, powerful sentence that lingers in the reader's mind.

Example Story:

1) The moon hung low in twilight's glow. 2) I felt both relief and dread simultaneously. 3) The letter in my hand trembled slightly. 4) A gust of wind tore it away. 5) At first, it seemed like a harmless breeze. 6) Shadows silently slid across the stone streets. 7) The figure began to emerge from darkness. 8) How did they know I'd be here? 9) The letter wasn't meant for me. 10) They whispered, "You're too late."

A series of horizontal lines for writing, spaced evenly down the page.

For more resources like this, visit briantolentino.com

