Example Story:

Samantha didn't realize how much the storm would affect her plans, but its greatest effect was keeping her trapped inside for the night. She sighed, staring out the window at the sheets of rain.

"I can't believe we're stuck here," she muttered. Just then, she thought she could hear a faint knocking at the door, almost drowned out by the wind.

She hesitated, unsure if the weather would make it too dangerous to open the door. But she had to decide whether to check or ignore it.

Taking a deep breath, she unlatched the door, hoping for peace rather than trouble. A soaked traveler stood outside, shivering, clutching a small piece of paper in their hand.

Samantha let them inside and stepped over a hole while fetching a blanket. "I can show you a whole new world," the traveler said while pointing at the paper.
