

Name:

Date:

Section:

Score:

St. Patrick's Day 10-Sentence Writing Challenge

Your mission: Write a short St. Patrick's Day story, but follow these specific rules for each sentence.

Sentence 1: Introduce a character who has a strong belief in luck (or disbelief in it).

Sentence 2: Describe something green in a creative way.

Sentence 3: Introduce a conflict involving a lost or stolen pot of gold, lucky charm, or four-leaf clover.

Sentence 4: Include a sentence with alliteration (e.g., "Liam leaped over the lush, lucky lawn.").

Sentence 5: Have your character make a difficult choice.

Sentence 6: Write a sentence with exactly five words.

Sentence 7: Use one of these words: mysterious, shimmering, mischievous, vanished.

Sentence 8: Begin a sentence with "Suddenly, without warning,..."

Sentence 9: Mention a rainbow, leprechaun, or magical event.

Sentence 10: End your story with an unexpected twist.

Example Story:

1) Maeve O'Connell never believed in luck—she thought hard work made things happen, not magic. 2) The hills around her cottage rolled like green waves, glowing under the golden afternoon sun. 3) But when her grandfather's lucky four-leaf clover vanished from its glass case, Maeve knew someone had taken it. 4) She searched the clover-covered countryside, carefully combing through the thick, tangled tendrils of leaves. 5) She had to decide: tell her grandfather the clover was gone or track down the thief herself. 6) She chose to find it. 7) A mysterious rustling in the bushes made her heart pound. 8) Suddenly, without warning, a tiny leprechaun leaped onto a rock, twirling the missing clover between his fingers. 9) A shimmering rainbow stretched across the sky, leading straight to a pile of golden coins. 10) Maeve lunged for the clover—but instead, she found herself standing in her grandfather's shoes, the leprechaun laughing as he took her place.

