

Name:
Section:

Date:
Score:

Whisper in the Library

For this task, you'll receive the beginning of a story.
Watch the video, read the story, and then craft a creative and captivating ending.

Theo never believed in magic, but he did believe in books. Books were predictable. They had covers, chapters, and endings. They didn't change overnight or rewrite themselves when you weren't looking.

At least, that's what Theo thought—until he started working at the Apple Valley Library.

The library was old. The kind of old that smelled like paper and dust, where every wooden shelf groaned under the weight of knowledge. Theo had taken the job as a part-time clerk, thinking it would be quiet. A few grumpy historians, a handful of college students, and some kids checking out fairy tales. Easy work.

Then, one night, as he was shelving a book on ancient languages, something odd happened. He heard a whisper.

It wasn't loud, barely more than a breath. Then...

Creatively finish writing the story.

Here are some ideas.

Lined writing paper with horizontal lines.

For more resources like this, visit briantolentino.com

