Writing Prompt: The Machine

For this task, you'll receive the beginning of a story.

Watch the video, read the story, and then craft a creative and captivating ending.

Elliot had always been drawn to abandoned places, but he never expected to find the truth buried beneath them. The old research facility on the outskirts of town had been shut down for decades—its windows shattered, glass and graffiti everywhere. It was the kind of place that held secrets—secrets Elliot was determined to uncover.

As Elliot walked through the building, he felt like the walls were watching him. Every creak of the warped floorboards echoed through the hollow space. Dust hung in the air, catching the streaks of weak sunlight that filtered through broken windows.

Then he saw it: a machine.

Write a creative and captivating ending to the story.
