Six-Word Stories (Months)

Write a six-word story for each month of the year.
Use the examples below to spark your imagination.

January:

Blank slate. Snow hushes old noise.

July:

Fireworks bloom. Freedom flickers. Ice melts.

February:

Paper hearts. Cold hands. Warm glance.

August:

Sun retreats. Suitcases packed. Countdown begins.

March:

Umbrella snapped. Wind whispered, "soon spring."

September:

New shoes. Blank notebooks. Hope buzzes.

April:

Puddle jumps. Sky cries. Laughter echoes.

October:

Pumpkin grins. Shadows stretch. Moon watches.

May:

Petals fall. Finals loom. Time sprints.

November:

Leaves fall. Table fills. Hearts gather.

June:

School's out. Bikes roll. Dreams expand.

December:

Lights glow. Wishes whispered. Year ends.
