

Name:
Section:

Date:
Score:

Write Your Own Six-Word Stories

Create at least two original six-word stories for each of the following categories:

- Mystery & Suspense
- Love & Heartbreak
- Science Fiction & Fantasy
- Coming of Age
- Humor

That's a total of 10 six-word stories.

Before You Begin:

Read the sample six-word stories below. Notice how each one hints at a larger world, emotion, or conflict—even with just six words. Think about what's implied, what's left unsaid, and how punctuation affects tone.

Examples:

Mystery & Suspense

- Footprints stopped at the water's edge.
- Looked in the mirror—nothing there.

Love & Heartbreak

- Met online. Now my greatest love.
- Asked her out—she said no.

Science Fiction & Fantasy

- Moon colonized. Earth no longer answers.
- Cloned him. Regretted it too late.

Coming of Age/Personal Growth

- Failed math test. Studied. Passed class.
- Left childhood behind. Found courage ahead.

Humor

- Haircut disaster. Now trending on TikTok.
- Forgot pants. Zoom call was live.

After Writing

Choose your favorite six-word story and write it on the final page. Then, draw a picture or add images to bring your story to life.

Create at least two original six-word stories for each of the following categories:

Mystery and Suspense

---

---

---

---

---

Love and Heartbreak

---

---

---

---

---

Science Fiction and Fantasy

---

---

---

---

---

Coming of Age/Personal Growth

---

---

---

---

---

Humor

---

---

---

---

---

Choose your favorite six-word story and write it below. Then, draw pictures or add images to bring your story to life.

