Example Story: The Case of the Missing Lunchbox

(1) First, I put my lunchbox on the bench near the basketball court. (2) Then, I ran off to join my friends in a quick game of tag. (3) After that, we all lined up to go back inside, but I noticed something strange. (4) Meanwhile, a group of squirrels was gathering suspiciously near the bench. (5) Suddenly, one squirrel darted away, dragging something shiny and blue in its tiny paws. (6) Because of that, I chased it all the way to the edge of the playground. (7) In the end, the squirrel dropped my lunchbox when it spotted a peanut on the ground. (8) However, when I opened it, my sandwich was completely gone. (9) Next, I made a deal with my best friend to trade half my cookie for half of her sandwich. (10) Finally, we both laughed and agreed: squirrels are smarter than they look.
