8-Sentence Argument Challenge

briantolentino.com

Write an 8-sentence argumentative paragraph using the structure given.

Topic: Should e-gaming be considered a sport?

Sentence 1: Start with a bold claim.

Example: E-gaming should absolutely be recognized as a real sport.

Sentence 2: Follow up with a surprising fact.

Example: Professional gamers can practice up to 10 hours a day and compete for millions in prize money.

Sentence 3: Ask a thought-provoking rhetorical question.

Example: If chess and archery are considered sports, why not competitive gaming?

Sentence 4: Introduce your first reason with strong conviction.

Example: E-gaming requires intense focus, quick reflexes, and strategic thinking.

Sentence 5: Provide a specific example or scenario.

Example: In the 2018 "League of Legends" World Championship, over 200 million people tuned in — more than the Super Bowl.

Sentence 6: Acknowledge a counterargument.

Example: Some say it's not a sport because it doesn't involve much physical activity.

Sentence 7: Refute that counterargument with logic or evidence.

Example: But sports like shooting, curling, and even golf rely more on skill, precision, and mental endurance than on running or jumping.

Sentence 8: End with a memorable closing or call to action.

Example: E-gaming is the sport of the digital generation — it's time we give it the recognition it deserves.
