

Name:

Date:

Section:

Score:

briantolentino.com

The Six-Seven Haunted Story Challenge

Directions: Write a short story using the directions below. Each sentence must include the transition word given.

Sentence 1: First, introduce the main character as they enter a spooky setting (a forest, haunted house, or graveyard).

Sentence 2: Next, describe a peculiar sound that causes your character to stop and listen.

Sentence 3: Then, have your character notice something unusual (such as glowing eyes or six to seven black cats)

Sentence 4: After that, have your character make an important decision.

Sentence 5: Meanwhile, feature something that follows or watches your character.

Sentence 6: Suddenly, your character discovers a message, door, or clue that says “six-seven.”

Sentence 7: Before long, something unexpected happens that changes what your character believes about the place.

Sentence 8: In the distance, describe something your character sees or hears that creates tension.

67

Sentence 9: Finally, reveal what “six-seven” really means (create a silly or scary explanation)

Sentence 10: In the end, show how your character escapes (or doesn't) and what lesson they learned from the night.

