Your task: Write a 10-sentence story. Each sentence must use the assigned winter-themed verb correctly and creatively.

Sentence 1: Use the verb drift to introduce your setting.

Sentence 2: Use the verb twirl to describe movement.

Sentence 3: Use the verb crunch to add sound imagery.

Sentence 4: Use the verb whirl to show something chaotic or fast.

Sentence 5: Use the verb glide to show something smooth or graceful.

Sentence 6: Use the verb sparkle with a simile.

Sentence 7: Use the verb shiver to show emotion or temperature.

Sentence 8: Use the verb powder as snow covering something.

Sentence 9: Use the verb melt to show a physical or emotional change.

Sentence 10: Use the verb glimmer in your final, meaningful moment.

Example Story

1) Snowflakes began to drift over the village, wrapping everything in a magical sense of calm. 2) I watched snowflakes twirling in the air—and across the street, an ice skater twirled just like them. 3) That's when I heard the snow beside me crunch. 4) A kid suddenly whirled a snowball at me and it hit me right in the face. 5) Behind him, I saw my best friend Samantha glide past a tree as if she owned the whole winter day. 6) Her teeth sparkled like diamonds when she burst out laughing. 7) The kid who threw the snowball started to shiver, sensing he had made a huge mistake. 8) Samantha loaded up a snowball and nailed him in the back as fresh snow powdered the nearby trees. 9) The arrogance on his face melted away, just like the snow dripping down his jacket. 10) Snow glimmered all around us as I high-fived Samantha.
