Six-Word Mayhem: Semester Edition

Write 10 different six-word stories about your semester.

Each story must be exactly six words—and each one must fit a different theme below.

1. Explain your semester using a metaphor.

Example: Stormy season; still walked out stronger.

2. Explain your semester using alliteration.

Example: Sudden struggles sparked surprising student strength.

3. A challenge you overcame.

Example: Doubted myself—worked harder—finally succeeded.

4. A lesson you'll keep forever.

Example: Small steps daily create massive change.

5. Your biggest surprise.

Example: Unexpected victory from nearly giving up.

6. A moment you'd redo.

Example: Spoke quickly; wished I'd listened first.

7. Your hardest grade to achieve.

Example: Hours studying finally earned that A.

8. A friendship that shaped you.

Example: Met quietly; grew loudly into family.

9. Your funniest moment.

Example: Tripped walking—class applauded my recovery.

10. A summary of your semester.

Example: Messy beginning; focused middle; proud ending.
