

Name:

Date:

Section:

Score:

briantolentino.com

Hot Take Challenge

In this activity, you will be assigned a “hot take” to defend. Your task is to fully commit to the position you are given—even if you personally disagree. Challenge yourself to think critically, see different perspectives, and build the strongest argument possible.

You must choose the prompt that matches your birthdate.

Example:

If you were born on June 17, you will respond to Prompt #17.

Hot Take Prompts

1) TikTok is more educational than school.

11) YouTube is the best way to learn anything.

21) Gaming is a legitimate career path.

2) School should only be 4 days a week.

12) Viral fame is more valuable than a college degree.

22) Watching short videos is ruining attention spans.

3) Homework is a complete waste of time

13) Students should be allowed to use AI for all assignments.

23) Social media creates unrealistic expectations.

4) Phones should be allowed all day at school.

14) Students should be able to skip classes they don't like.

24) First impressions are almost always wrong.

5) Group projects do more harm than good.

15) Being bored is actually good for you.

25) Confidence matters more than talent.

6) AI will replace most jobs in the future.

16) Texting is ruining communication skills.

26) Most people give up too easily.

7) Grades don't actually measure intelligence.

17) Everyone should have a personal brand.

27) Money can buy happiness.

8) School lunches should be free and unlimited.

18) Success depends more on hard work than luck

28) Failure is the best teacher.

9) Social media is more toxic than helpful.

19) Teachers should be paid like professional athletes.

29) I People judge others too quickly.

10) Influencers work harder than most adults.

20) Kids today have it harder than adults think.

30) Being popular is overrated.

31) School rules are too strict.

